

Good evening Nikki,

I'm writing to clarify my previous request for copies of all correspondence related to the damages incurred at 303 N. Washington Avenue during the sidewalk construction process.

Copies of all correspondence, both relevant and irrelevant, related to the damages incurred at 303 N. Washington Avenue during the sidewalk construction process.

Please provide copies of any and all correspondence (text, email, letter, etc.) involving Eric Powell or any other city official or representative, as well as Casey Sloan, Casey Sloan's representatives, Casey Sloan Construction, Casey Sloan's Insurance Company, and the Engineer hired by Casey Sloan's Insurance Company. This includes both incoming and outgoing correspondence related to this matter.

Additionally, please provide any correspondence, incoming or outgoing, (text, email, letter, etc.) that mentions, refers or implies to myself or 303 N. Washington Avenue, regardless of subject, to and from any and all city personnel including Terrell Smith.

I would appreciate an estimated timeline for receiving this information.

Thank you,

Larry Watts

Thank you for the information.

If I haven't received a response by tomorrow morning, I will begin researching how to file a FOIA.

Best Regards,
Larry

Dear Nikki,

I am writing to formally request copies of all correspondence, both relevant and irrelevant, related to the damages incurred at 303 N. Washington Avenue during the sidewalk construction process.

Specifically, I would like copies of any and all correspondence (text, email, letter, etc.) sent by Eric Powell or any other city official or representative to Casey Sloan, Casey Sloan's representatives, Casey Sloan Construction, Casey Sloan's Insurance Company, and the Engineer hired by Casey Sloan's Insurance Company. Please also include any correspondence involving other parties related to this matter.

Please let me know if there are any forms that I need to fill out or sign to initiate this request.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Larry Watts

Larry,

You will need to do a formal request through the City Secretary for that information. Once I get the request I can find any relative info that may have been sent.

Good afternoon, Eric,

I'm in receipt of the engineering report from the insurance company.

It is my understanding that you provided information to the engineer and insurance company regarding the damages to the property located at 303 N. Washington Avenue.

Please forward me a copy of all correspondence you submitted to the engineer, insurance company and/or Casey Sloan regarding the damages at 303 N. Washington Avenue for my file.

Thank you so much for your help in this matter.

Larry
